

PULLMAN | PARIS CENTRE-BERCY

Our Commitment to More Sustainable Hospitality

A Hotel Committed to the Environmental Transition

At Pullman Paris Centre-Bercy, sustainability is at the heart of our vision of hospitality. Through meaningful actions in energy efficiency, responsible dining, resource management, and team engagement, we are building a premium guest experience that is more respectful of the environment, every day.

OUR PEOPLE AT THE HEART OF CHANGE

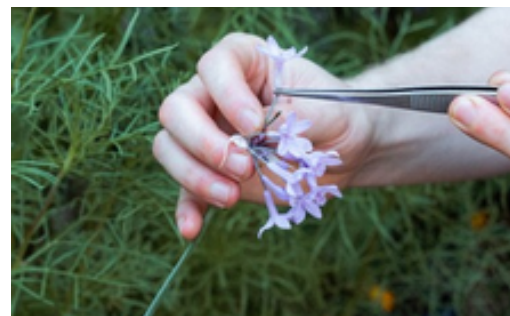

21 nationalities represented

- In-house sustainability (CSR) training
- Ongoing sustainability awareness
- Diversity & Inclusion
- Skills development

MORE SUSTAINABLE DINING

- Seasonal produce
- French-sourced products
- Vegetarian menu options
- Beef-free meeting & event menus
- An edible garden
- Food waste reduction

RESPONSIBLE RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

- Resource consumption monitoring
- Performance tracking with Gaia 2.0
- Monthly monitoring of water, electricity & CO₂ emissions
- Installation of water-saving aerators
- Preventive maintenance of equipment

RESPONSIBLE PROCUREMENT

- Committed partners
- Accor-approved suppliers
- Accor Group Code of Ethics
- Environmental and social sourcing criteria

AN AMBITIOUS ENERGY TRANSITION

- 100% electric energy
- Natural gas eliminated
- Deployment of an advanced heat pump system
- Simultaneous heating and cooling production
- Energy recovery technology

Pullman Paris Centre-Bercy is Green Globe certified, an internationally recognized sustainability certification for the tourism industry, awarded to properties that meet more than 380 rigorous social and environmental criteria.

Our Commitments in Numbers

17,750 guests welcomed in 2025

21 nationalities represented across our team

100% elimination of natural gas

1 in-house sustainability (CSR) training programme deployed

1 partnership with Take a Waste

1 Gaia 2.0 platform for environmental performance monitoring

Certified "Tourisme & Handicap"

pullman
HOTELS AND RESORTS